PART 2009 - BUDGETS

SUBPART D - Budgetary Allotment Codes and Titles

§ 2009.151 General.

This instruction prescribes the codes and titles with related explanations and procedures used under the Rural Development system of control of funds and authorities. Allotment, distribution, and obligation and expenditure accounts described herein will be established only as required and authorized by the issuance of allotment advices or other source documents. Obligations may be incurred only for purposes which have been approved in accordance with policies established by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB).

Rural Development is mandated by the Department to use the Foundation Financial Information System (FFIS) for administrative budget funds control. The codes and titles explained in this instruction are required for use in FFIS funds control system. The complete detail procedures for FFIS can be accessed through the USDA Rural Development Intranet at <http://teamrd.usda.gov>, select St. Louis Intranet and then select Deputy Chief Financial Officer. Click on FFIS User Documentation to find the information.

§ 2009.152 Definitions - Administrative Budget.

- (a) Allocation Account. An account established for the purpose of recording allotments of funds to administrative officials (allottees) for specified purposes.
- (b) Allotment Account. An account established (usually as a subsidiary to an allocation account) for the purpose of recording and maintaining a control over amounts that are detail changes to the allocation within specific allotments. Such amounts are made available to the allottees.
- (c) Obligations and Expenditures. A transaction account that is established to record detailed purposes for which obligations and expenditures are incurred and funds are expended.

§ 2009.153 Administrative Allotment Control Coding Sequence.

- (a) Allotment, Distribution, and Classification. Allotment and program code will be coded in the sequence shown in Exhibit A.

DISTRIBUTION: WSADMINISTRATION BUDGETS

- (b) Fiscal Year/Appropriation. The first position of the allotment coding sequence identifies the fiscal year. The second position of the allotment coding sequence identifies the fund that references the appropriation from which funds are allotted. See Exhibit B.
- (c) Division/Allottee. For National Office, the third and fourth position of the allotment coding sequence identifies the principal allottee and location. See Exhibit C and H.
- (d) Organization Code. For National Office, the fifth, sixth, and seventh positions of the allotment coding sequence identifies additional levels within the organization structure to which sub-allotments can be allotted to those levels and the obligation and expenditure is applicable. See Exhibit H.
- (e) State. For the States, the third, fourth, and fifth positions of the allotment coding sequence identifies the state to which the obligations and expenditures are incurred. See Exhibit H.
- (f) County. For States, the sixth and seventh positions of the allotment coding sequence identifies the county in which obligations and expenditures are incurred. The procedure for coding is given in exhibit H.
- (g) Reporting Category. For National Office, and States, the eighth and ninth positions of the allotment coding sequence identify obligations and expenditures for special purposes which cannot be identified from other allotment coding. See Exhibit K.
- (h) Object Class. The object class is not part of the Allotment Control Coding Sequence. It is entered on sub-allotting and obligating documents that create system transactions. It classifies all obligations and expenditures in accordance with the classifications prescribed by OMB as shown in Exhibit F.

§ 2009.154 Allocations and Distributions.

- (a) Allocations and/or distributions will be made by the National Office. Allotments will be made to principal allottees on Form RD 2009-42, "Allotment Advice," or Form AD-704, "Allotment Advice." Distributions of authorizations will be made to offices as required and will be the basis for establishing, maintaining, and reporting of Allocations and Distribution Accounts within the Appropriation. A separate series of detailed obligation and expenditure will be established, maintained, and reported for each Allotment Account.

§ 2009.154 (Con.)

(b) The obligation and expenditure applicable to each Allocation Account are described in subsequent exhibits of this Instruction. Forms RD 2009-42 or AD-704 will authorize increases or decreases to the Allotment Accounts and will indicate, when required, obligation and expenditure are approved for obligation purposes.

(c) Amounts subject to apportionment will be allotted on a cumulative quarterly or other periodic basis in accordance with RD Instruction 2009-B.

§ 2009.155 Allotments - Administrative Accounts.

An agency-wide allotment for the administrative appropriation will be made through the use of Form AD-704. Agency-wide allocations of this allotment to the Allotment Accounts will be made through the use of Form AD-705, "Advice of Allocation of Funds." Upon receipt of this form, the allottee will process obligations and expenditures as they are received against these allocations using detail object class. Allocations (Form AD-704) will not be issued for receipt accounts. See chart of accounts in Exhibit F.

§ 2009.156 Definitions - Program Budget.

(a) Allotment Account. An account established for the purpose of recording allotments of funds to administrative officials (allottees) for specified purposes.

(b) Distribution Account. An account established (usually as a subsidiary to an allotment account) for the purpose of recording and maintaining a control over amounts that are within specific allotments. Such amounts are made available to administrative officials other than allottees.

(c) Obligation and Expenditure Account. An account established to record detailed purposes for which obligations are incurred and funds are expended.

§ 2009.157 Loan and Grant Allotment Control Coding Sequence.

(a) Allotment, Distribution, and Obligation and Expenditure. Allotment, distribution, and obligation and expenditure accounts will be coded in the sequence shown in Exhibit A.

(b) Appropriation. The first and second digits of the allotment coding sequence identifies the various appropriations from which funds are allotted. See Exhibit B.

(c) Fiscal Year. The third and fourth digits of the allotment coding sequence represents the fiscal year pertaining to allotment period involved. The last two digits of the fiscal year will be used in identifying a specific time period; however, certain annual appropriations and operating procedures may require only the last digit for identification purposes.

(d) Principal Allottee. The fifth digit of the allotment coding sequence identifies the principal allottee. See Exhibit C.

(e) Major Classification. The sixth and seventh digits of the allotment coding sequence identifies the principal activity of the allotment or distribution as shown in Exhibit D.

(f) Object Class. The eighth and ninth digits of the allotment coding sequence will classify allotments in accordance with the classifications prescribed by OMB and as shown in Exhibits:

- E Loans and Grants
- G Insurance Fund Activities

(g) Planning, Programming, and Budgeting. The tenth, eleventh, and twelfth digits of the allotment coding sequence will identify the program elements as specified by the Department. When activities are not specifically classified by the Department under the Program Planning and Budgeting (PPB) system, the codes are assigned by the Budget Division. See Exhibit E.

(h) Cost Center. The thirteenth and fourteenth digits of the allotment coding sequence identifies the cost center to which the obligation and expenditure is applicable. See Exhibit I.

(i) Subunit. The fifteenth digit of the allotment coding sequence identifies the subsidiary organizational units. See Exhibit H.

(j) Geographic Location. The sixteenth and seventeenth digits of the allotment coding sequence identifies the state in which the obligation and expenditure are incurred. See Exhibit H.

§ 2009.157 (Con.)

(k) County. The eighteenth, nineteenth, and twentieth digits of the allotment coding sequence identifies the county in which funds are obligated. County codes will be assigned to all loan and grant obligations and expenditures. See Exhibit H.

(l) Obligation and Expenditure Accounts. The twenty-first, twenty-second, and twenty-third digits of the allotment coding sequence identify:

(1) For loans and grants, the type of submission and the purposes for which they are made. See Exhibit E.

(2) For the insurance funds and capital accounts, this code will identify obligations and expenditures below the object class level. See Exhibit G.

(m) Special Purpose. The twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth digits of the allotment coding sequence will be used whenever a need exists to identify or classify loan purposes or special use. See Exhibit J.

§ 2009.158 Master Allotment and Distribution Accounts for Loans and Grants.

Authorization to incur obligations for loans and the allotment of loan and grant funds will be made to the Deputy Chief Financial Officer, St. Louis Office, on an allotment advice or distributions may be made to State Offices, as circumstances require, by the National Office.

(a) Supplementary internal controls over funds reserved by the National Office may be established by the Deputy Chief Financial Officer, St. Louis Office.

(b) The appropriation symbol, appropriation code, major classification, object class, PPB and obligation and expenditure codes for each authorization or fund is shown in Exhibit E.

(c) Veteran activity will be separately identified for loans to individuals. The suffix "C" will be used to identify non-veterans and the suffix "5" will be used to identify veterans.

§ 2009.159 Master Allotment Accounts - Insurance Funds.

(a) Allotments for the Agricultural Credit Insurance Fund (ACIF), and the Rural Housing Insurance Fund (RHIF) and the Rural Development Insurance Fund (RDIF) will be made to an object class code under jurisdiction of the Deputy Chief Financial Officer, St. Louis Office.

(b) Upon receipt of an allotment advice, the Office of the Deputy Chief Financial Officer, St. Louis Office will establish obligation and expenditure accounts as required.

(c) Generally, allowance amounts will not be established for the various purposes for which the ACIF, RDIF, and RHIF may be obligated. The Deputy Chief Financial Officer, St. Louis Office is authorized to record obligations and expenditures for approved purposes as required within the total Master Allotment available. Program levels and other amounts subject to the apportionment processes may also be controlled by allowance accounts applicable to the insurance funds. These controls will be established on an item-by-item basis as needed to comply with reporting requirements. A chart of Allotment Accounts is shown in Exhibit G.

DESCRIPTION OF ACCOUNTS

Obligation and Expenditure accounts as shown on Exhibit G will be established for the following purposes:

A Investments and Loans 33

Loans from Fund for Later Sale - These accounts will be charged for loans made from the fund for later sale.

Loans Assigned under Insurance Provisions - These accounts will be charged the amount of principal and interest paid note holders by the fund to purchase notes in default or to purchase notes for servicing actions which require that the note be held by the fund.

Loans assigned Under Purchase Agreement - These accounts will be charged for the amounts of principal any interest paid note holders by the fund to purchase notes, at the option of the holder, after the expiration of the fixed redemption period.

Redemption of Certificates of Beneficial Ownership - These accounts will be charged for the amount of principal paid to holders by the fund to redeem Certificates of Beneficial Ownership after expiration of the fixed period. Contracts of Guarantee - These accounts will be charged for the amount of principal and interest of the purchase of guaranteed loans.

Recertifications - These accounts will be charged with recertified payments and credited with clearances received from Treasury.

Delinquent Installments - These accounts will be charged for the amounts paid annually by the fund to note holders for borrowers' delinquent installments of principal and interest.

1/ Recoverable Cost - These accounts will be charged for recoverable costs properly chargeable to the borrowers' accounts:

Other - Legal fees, recording fees and expenses incident to foreclosed or mortgaged property.

Taxes - Taxes on insured loan property and special assessments.

Insurance - Insurance premiums which the borrower fails to pay.

Advertising - Advertising costs.

Cost Incident to Acquired Property - These accounts will be charged for costs incident to acquired real property:

Other - Legal fees, recording fees, and payments to prior lien holders.

Taxes - Taxes on acquired real property and special assessments.

Preservation and Protection - Cost for major repair, building improvements, land development that increase the value of acquired real estate, and other costs necessary for the preservation and protection of acquired real property.

Advertising - Advertising costs.

1/ Credit Report fees - These accounts will be charged with the cost or credit report fees of approved loan applicants.

Rental Assistance - This account will be charged with all rental assistance obligation and voucher activity applicable to the Rural Housing Insurance Fund.

B Other Services 25

Advance Payments - The Office of Management and Budget requires that advance reimbursements (for transfers of funds) be recorded as an expenditure of the paying appropriation and as a reduction of expenditures for the receiving appropriations. The credit entry will be posted as "Obligations and "Vouchers to the Rural Development Appropriation "Salaries and Expenses." This account includes charges applicable to other government agencies when Rural Development may be administering the assets held in trust for said agency.

Non-Recoverable Costs - Credit Report Fees - This account will be charged with costs of credit bureau services which will not be collected from the loan applicant, because the loan was not processed, or the amount is determined not to be administratively feasible to collect.

Non-Recoverable Cost Incident to Sale of Insured Loans - This account will be charged with cost incident to sale of insured loans. This will include the concession given on block sales to syndicate on open market.

Agreements/Contracts - This account will be used to record agreements and contracts not identified elsewhere in this Instruction.

Penalty Interest - This account will be used to record interest penalty for late payments to private vendors.

Agreements/Contracts for FAPDS - This account will be used to record all agreement any contract costs for development of the Automated Program Delivery System.

Legal Fees - This account will be used to record all legal fees which are determined to be paid by Rural Development out of the revolving funds.

Guarantee Loss Settlements - These accounts will be charged for amounts paid lenders of guaranteed loans for losses claimed under contracts of guarantee. These losses could be paid before or after liquidation of the borrower's security in accordance with loss settlement option elected. This account does not include amounts for acquisition of the borrower's security.

1/ Non-Recoverable Cost Incident to Loans - This account will be charged with costs incident to insured loans, paid by the Government, which cannot properly be charged to the borrower's account or inventory account. It includes cost items ordinarily considered recoverable, but which are prohibited by State Statute from being charged to the borrower.

Miscellaneous Expense - This account will be used to record miscellaneous expenses which cannot be included in other categories of this Instruction.

Compensation for Construction Defects - This account will be used to record compensation for construction defects paid from the Rural Housing Insurance Fund for fiscal years 1982 and prior.

Private Contractors for Emergency Loans - This account will be used to record costs of making and servicing emergency loans using private contractors.

Chattel Security Services - This account will be used to record costs of security services for chattel property.

Construction Inspectors - This account will be used to record contract costs for construction inspections.

Contracts Guaranteed - This account will be used to record contract costs associated with guaranteed loans.

C Grants, Subsidies, and Contributions 41

Payment Assistance - These accounts will be charged for the amount of payment assistance credited to the borrower's account.
(Revised 10-27-95, SPECIAL PN.)

D Interest and Dividends 43

Interest Expense - Additional Yield to Note Holders - These accounts will be charged for payments to private holders of additional interest accrued on the holder's account resulting from sales of loans by the ACIF or the RHIF to yield a higher return to note holders than that stated in the borrower's promissory note. This premium paid to the note holders annually, upon final payments by borrowers or when loans are purchased from note holders.

Interest Expense - Withheld Collections - These accounts will be charged for payment to holders for interest accrued on the holder's account between the dates of any payments made by the borrower and the date of payment to the holder. These payments will be made at the time final payments are remitted to note holders or when loans are purchased from note holders.

Interest Expense - Certifications of Beneficial Ownership - These accounts will be charged for payment to holders for interest accrued and paid on Certificates of Beneficial Ownership. These payments will be made annually on the anniversary date of the sale until the expiration of the fixed period.

Treasury - Interest - This account will be charged for amounts of interest paid the Treasury on outstanding notes payable which represent borrowings from the Treasury to make loans from the fund for later sale and/or to carry out the provisions of the insurance authority.

Interest on Government Equity - This account will be charged for amounts of interest accrued and paid the Treasury on equity of net assets transferred from ECRF and FHA-DLA to ACIF in accordance with FmHA Act of 1972.

GNMA Interest - This account will be charged for amounts of interest accrued and paid on Trust Agreement Contracts with FNMA.

Interest Subsidy Expense on Guaranteed Loans - These accounts will be charged for amounts paid or accrued to lenders of guaranteed loans for interest subsidy in accordance with the contracts of guarantee. These amounts are determined based on the difference between the rate the borrower pays the lender and the approved Rural Development rate at the time the contract of guarantee is executed. Payments are made semi-annually (or as of the date of assumption) to the lender.

Guaranteed Interest Rate Reductions - These accounts will be charged for the amount of interest rate buydown payments made by Rural Development to lenders. These amounts are determined by an agreement between the borrower, lender, and Rural Development to reduce the borrower loan interest rate up to three years. The payments to the lenders will be 50% of the reduced rate not to exceed 2 percentage points.

Interest Expense on Participation Certificates - (RHIF) - This account will be charged for amounts of interest accrued and paid on Participation Certificates with GNMA.

E Refunds 44

Withheld Collections - These accounts will be charged for disbursements made to note holders for collections of principal and interest received from borrowers. (Does not include payments to note holders for collections that are not processed through the Fund, if any.)

F Offset Charges, PL 89 - 106

This account will be used to record the offset charge from ACIF to the Salaries and Expenses Appropriation.

G Undistributed Charges 96

Undistributed Charges - Other Than Certificates of Beneficial Ownership - This is a suspense account for payments made to note holders pending an analysis of the transactions. Payments entered to this account will be cleared to the proper allotment code as soon as the analysis of the transactions is completed. This account will include amounts due note holders for borrower's delinquent installments of principal and interest; purchase of notes by the Government under the insurance provisions, or due to expiration of the fixed redemption period; amounts of collections received from borrowers for principal and interest; and interest accrued on the holders account between the dates of any payments made by the borrower and the date of payment to the holder.

Undistributed Charges - Certificates of Beneficial Ownership - This is a suspense account for payments made to holders of Certificates of Beneficial Ownership. Payments to this account will be cleared to the proper allotment code as soon as they are applied to the holders' account.

Reimbursement for Losses - This account will be used to record the annual appropriation for losses for RDIF.

1/ District Directors and County Supervisors must indicate on each voucher that includes a recoverable or non-recoverable loan cost item, the appropriate code for the type of account involved. The Finance Office determines, with respect to each type of account, the funds which are properly chargeable for the cost item. Finance Instruction 323.9 designates the funds chargeable for each type of account, indicated by the codes on the vouchers.

ORGANIZATION CODES
(Administrative)

Positions three and four

Used to identify the state (see page 2 of this exhibit for state codes) to which obligation and expenditures are chargeable. For Headquarters organizations these positions will identify the allottee/location (see below) and the next level of the organization.

D - OFFICE OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT
M - OPERATION AND MANAGEMENT - Washington, D.C.
L - OPERATION AND MANAGEMENT - St. Louis
P - POLICY AND PLANNING
B - RURAL BUSINESS SERVICE
H - RURAL HOUSING SERVICE
U - RURAL UTILITIES SERVICE
S - NATIONAL SHEEP INDUSTRY IMPROVEMENT CENTER
C - ALTERNATIVE AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH AND COMMERCIALIZATION CORPORATION

Positions five, six, and seven

Used to identify additional levels within the organization. State offices begin with "8", area offices begin with "9", and local offices use the county code (see RD Organization Listing in 2009-C for county code. This information is revised annually.)
